Undervisningserfaring (2004 -) / Teaching (2004 -)

Jeg har, siden jeg som kandidatstuderende på polit.-studiet på Københavns Universitet i to år (1975-77) var 'studererunderviser' i faget nationaløkonomi været underviser, kursusarrangør, organisator for seminarer og workshops og foredragsholder i forbindelse med de ansættelser, jeg har haft siden 1980 og ikke mindst efter min ansættelse på Ilisimatusarfik, Grønlands Universitet i 2004.

Jeg har neden for listet væsentlige undervisningsforpligtelser (med angivelse af omfang og formål og i 'omvendt' kronologisk rækkefølge), jeg har haft siden jeg i 2004 blev ansat ved Ilisimatusarfik, Grønlands Universitet. Min undervisning har primært været gennemført ved to af Ilisimatusarfiks afdelinger: Afdeling for Kultur og Samfundshistorie og Afdeling for Samfundsvidenskab (nu: Arktisk Samfundsvidenskab), men jeg har også været gæsteunderviser/-forlæser på afdelingerne for Erhvervsøkonomi, Journalistik og Sociale Forhold.

Siden 2019 har jeg undervist på DTU BYG-kurser på ARTEK, Sisimiut: på kursus 11838 Ingeniør i Grønland (med lektor Kåre Hendriksen) i 2020 og 2021 og på kursus 11858 Infrastruktur og samfund i Arktis (med professor Ulrik Jørgensens) i 2019, 2020 og 2021.

Jeg har desuden deltaget på nationale og internationale forskningskonferencer med oplæg/præsentationer (se bilag) samt været underviser på Ph.d.-kurser (se oversigten i bilag) samt vejledt studerende på både BA- (otte bachelorer) kandidat- (fem kandidater) og Ph.d.-niveau (bivejleder for en Ph.d.-studerende)

Moderne samfundsforhold/MoSa

(10 ECTS – BA-studerende)

Fagbeskrivelse

- Formålet med kurset er, at give de studerende indblik i det moderne grønlandske samfunds opbygning, udvikling og virke. Hovedvægten lægges på en sammenlignende beskrivelse og analyse af det grønlandske samfund, dets befolkning, erhverv og institutioner og udviklingen på disse områder siden 1950.
- Beskrivelsen og analysen af det moderne grønlandske samfund vil tage udgangspunkt i en model for samfundsopbygning, der opererer med elementerne Den offentlige sektor/Staten, Markedet og Det civile samfund og relationerne mellem disse elementer.
- 'Den offentlige sektor/Staten' omfatter Selvstyret og kommunerne, dvs. opbygning, opgaver og relationer til omverdenen, herunder relationen til rigsfællesskabet. Selvstyrets politikker på forskellige sektorområder vil blive behandlet. Ligesom også pressens rolle som den fjerde statsmagt vil blive berørt.
- 'Markedet' omfatter den grønlandske erhvervsstruktur og udviklingen inden for de forskellige erhverv, hvor de selvstyrejede virksomheder udgør et særligt område.
- 'Civilsamfundet' omfattes først og fremmest af familierne og deres levevilkår, lokale fællesskaber og andre sociale netværk, frivillige organisationer og den politiske offentlighed.

Jeg har undervist i Moderne (grønlandske) Samfundsforhold (MoSa):

- Som eneunderviser på Ilisimatusarfiks (Grønlands Universitets) afdeling for Kultur og Samfundshistorie i efterårssemestrene 2017-2021.
- Som medunderviser på Ilisimatusarfiks (Grønlands Universitets) afdeling for samfundsvidenskab i efterårssemestrene 2014-2016).
- Som gæsteunderviser i faget Moderne (grønlandske) Samfundsforhold (MoSa) på Ilisimatusarfiks (Grønlands Universitets) afdelinger for Erhvervsøkonomi (HA), Journalistik og Sociale Forhold

Kvantitative metoder - Med eksempler fra det grønlandske samfund

(5 ECTS – BA-studerende) –

Undervisningen omfatter deskriptive, kvantitative metoder, der belyser det moderne grønlandske samfund. Udover den teoretiske forståelse af grundlæggende statistiske begreber lægges der vægt på at bruge disse på konkrete, empiriske problemer, der perspektiverer grønlandske udviklingspotentialer.

Kursets faglige mål

- Viden: At den studerende opnår viden om forskellige statistiske metoder, deres begrænsninger, muligheder og anvendelse.
- Færdigheder: At den studerende kan anvende kvantitative metoder og lave kvantitativanalyse og drage konklusioner om kvantitativt data.
- Kompetencer: At den studerende udvikler kompetencer i at analysere moderne samfund med statistiske- og kvantitative metoder.

Jeg underviste i foråret 2020 som én af tre undervisere.

Måling af levevilkår og livskvalitet – Grønland som eksempel

(Valgfag: 7,5 ECTS) – BA- og Kandidatstuderende (Forår 2017)

Fagets formål:

De studerende skal i valgfaget Måling af levevilkår og livskvalitet – Grønland som eksempel opnå indsigt i

- forskellige måder at måle levevilkår, levestandard, velfærd og livskvalitet samt metodiske og teoretiske baggrunde herfor;
- diskussionen om udvikling og anvendelse af sociale indikatorer i Grønland og det øvrige Arktis;
- Den arktiske Levevilkårsundersøgelse, SLiCA herunder metodevalg og valg af forskningsdesign samt undersøgelsens hovedresultater;

Arktiske Levevilkår

(Emnefag: 7,5 ECTS) – BA og Kandidatstuderende (Forår 2013)

Fagets formål:

De studerende skal i valgfaget Arktiske levevilkår opnå indsigt i

- forskellige måder at måle levevilkår, levestandard, velfærd og livskvalitet samt metodiske og teoretiske baggrunde herfor;
- diskussionen om udvikling og anvendelse af sociale indikatorer i Grønland og det øvrige Arktis;
- Den arktiske Levevilkårsundersøgelse, SLiCA herunder metodevalg og valg af forskningsdesign samt undersøgelsens hovedresultater;
- livsbetingelser og levevilkår i det cirkumpolare område for både de oprindelige folk og andre arktiske befolkninger.
- centrale problemstillinger, de arktiske lande og befolkninger står over for – herunder hastigt ændrede økonomiske, sociale, kulturelle og politiske forhold, miljømæssige problemer og mulighederne for at skabe en bæredygtig udvikling. Arktis karakteriseres undertiden som et 'hotspot' kendetegnet ved bl.a. øget global strategisk betydning, klimaændringer som følge af global opvarmning, øget adgang til de arktiske have og mineralressourcer, udnyttelse af levende såvel som ikke-levende naturressourcer.
- nye lokale, regionale og internationale samarbejdsstrukturer, styrings- og forvaltningssystemer. Stigende kompleksitet i de problemstillinger, de arktiske befolkninger er konfronteret med har bl.a. medført et stigende behov for og fokus på udvikling af sådanne strukturer og systemer.

Moderne samfundsforhold (MOSA) med kvantitativ metode (modul I)

(10 ECTS) - BA-studerende

Kurset giver en indføring i det moderne grønlandske samfunds opbygning og virke og Grønlands internationale placering. Der inddrages internationalt stof, der sætter den grønlandske udvikling i et bredere perspektiv.

Jeg varetog undervisningen i MOSA-modul I i efteråret 2009 sammen med en anden underviser

Moderne samfundsforhold med kvantitativ metode (modul II)

(5 ECTS) - BA-studerende

I et særligt kursusmodul i tilknytning til undervisningen introduceres den studerende til deskriptive kvantitative metoder og får i udleverede øvelsesopgaver lejlighed til at anvende nogle af disse på et empirisk materiale

Jeg varetog undervisningen i MOSA-modul II i foråret 2010 og var i perioden 2011-2017 gæsteunderviser i modulet.

Levevilkår i Grønland og blandt inuit og samer i det øvrige Arktis – teori, metode og konkrete forskningserfaringer

(7,5 ECTS) – BA og Kandidatstuderende (Efterår 2009)

Beskrivelse af faget:

Det faglige indhold vil rumme

- metodiske aspekter (herunder afvejning mellem kvantitativ og kvalitativ undersøgelsesmetode samt konkrete undersøgelseserfaringer fra SLiCA);
- teoretiske aspekter (måling af levestandard, levevilkår, livskvalitet og lykke samt de grundlæggende overvejelser i forbindelse hermed);
- samfundsbeskrivende aspekter (f.eks. familiers levevilkår; arbejdsstyrkens mobilitet; fordelingen af levevilkårene: demografisk, geografisk, socialt; politisk deltagelse; blandingsøkonomien: penge- og subsistensøkonomi) – Grønland og det øvrige Arktis;
- komparative studier – dels i forhold til tidligere undersøgelser af levevilkår i Grønland (Berthelsen, Udvalget for Samfundsforskning i Grønland, Socialforskningsinstituttet og Grønlands Statistik, Statens Institut for Folkesundhed) og dels gennem sammenligning af levevilkår i den grønlandske del af befolkningen med levevilkår blandt inuit i andre arktiske samfund (belyst ved SLiCA data).

11832 Ingeniør i Grønland

(5 ECTS)

Overordnede kursusmål

De studerende bibringes en forståelse det moderne grønlandske samfund og de historiske forudsætninger. Der fokuseres på de ingeniørmæssige udfordringer knyttet til infrastruktur i de grønlandske ø-driftssamfund samt at bibringe de studerende en begyndende erkendelse af samfundets funktion og struktur og betydningen af forskellige kulture og den interkulturelle interaktion. Endvidere et kendskab til ingeniøropgaver og -profiler i det grønlandske samfund. Endeligt øves mundtlige- og multimediepræsentationer.

Jeg har i 2020 og 2021 været ansvarlig for forberedelse og gennemførelse af DTU BYG-kursus 11838 Ingeniør i Grønland (med kollega fra DTU-BYG), hvor jeg i min del af forløbet fokuserede på arbejdsmarkedet, erhvervsudviklingen og ledelse i Grønland - herunder ikke mindst samarbejds- og ledelsesmæssige udfordringer på arbejdspladser, der består af personer med forskellige kulturelle baggrunde og modersmål.

Undervisningen har været en vekselvirkning mellem forelæsninger, studenterfremlæggelser, gruppeopgaver og diskussioner. Arbejdet på ARTEK har været suppleret med virksomhedsbesøg (kommunen og Royal Greenlands fabrik) og gæsteoplæg (ingeniører med baggrund i den arktiske ingeniøruddannelse).

11858 Infrastruktur og samfund i Arktis

(5 ECTS)

Overordnede kursusmål

At formidle viden og kompetencer til at analysere infrastruktur, erhvervsudvikling og bosætningsmønstre i Arktisk, hvor bosættninger ofte er isolerede.

Centrale elementer:

- Infrastruktur og dens betydning for lokal udvikling
- Bæredygtig lokal og regional udvikling
- Strategisk og fysisk planlægning
- Logistik i Arktis

Kurset har tre dele:

Den første omhandler den strategiske planlægning og udvikling med fokus på infrastruktur, erhvervsudvikling og bosætning

Den anden drejer sig om metoder til involvering af interessenter i planlægningsprocesser.

I den tredje analyseres bæredygtigheden af store industriprojekter herunder EIA, SIA og SBA.

Kurset bruger primært lokale eksempler fra Grønland, men eksempler fra den arktiske region i almindelighed vil blive inddraget. Eksemplerne inkluderer strategisk såvel som fysik planlægning.

Jeg har i 2019, 2020 og 2021 været ansvarlig for forberedelse og gennemførelse af kurset sammen med kollega fra Ålborg Universitet.

ØKONOMI II

(5 ECTS) BA-studerende

Fagmodulet har til formål at behandle forholdet mellem den offentlige og den private sektor. Modulet behandler: teorien om offentlige goder og deres finansiering, skattepolitik, rollefordeling mellem stat, selvstyre og kommune.

Jeg varetog undervisningen i efterårssemestret 2021.

Offentlig økonomi

(10 ECTS) - Kandidatstuderende

Formålet med faget, hvis engelske betegnelse er 'public finance', behandler afgrænsningen mellem offentlig og private sektor. Kurset behandler: teorien om offentlige goder og deres finansiering, cost-benefit-analyser, skattepolitik, rollefordeling mellem stat, selvstyre og kommuner. Fagets metode bygger på mikroøkonomisk teori.

Jeg varetog undervisningen i sidste halvdel af Efterårssemestret 2021.
